Dear Mr. Lloyd:

This is a final response to your 8 March 2019 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, for any and all material on Lucien Sarti. We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3141, as amended.

We completed a thorough search for records responsive to your request and located three documents which can be released in their entirety. With regard to document C0023293, please be advised that we conducted thorough and diligent searches in an effort to obtain a full text version, but were ultimately unsuccessful. Therefore, we are enclosing the copy of the document as previously released. We also determined that one document can be released in segregable form with deletions made on the basis of FOIA exemption (b)(3). Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. The relevant statutes are Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. Copies of the documents are enclosed.

As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.

Additional records may be located in the John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection. Please be advised that CIA records reviewed and released pursuant to the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 ("JFK Act") were reviewed under the guidelines of that statute, which sets forth narrower grounds than the FOIA under which information may be withheld from public disclosure. As a result, records reviewed and released under the JFK Act represent the most extensive disclosure of such information permitted by law. CIA's JFK Act collection records are available from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). The Agency transferred these records to NARA in compliance with the JFK Act. You may wish to submit your request to NARA at the following address to obtain the most complete set of the records you seek:

JFK Assassination Records Collection
National Archives at College Park
8601 Adelphi Road
College Park, MD 20740-6001

In addition to the records of the CIA, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and numerous other Executive Branch agencies and offices, the collection contains the records of relevant Congressional committees, related court cases, and records private entities donated. The collection currently contains more than 2,000 cubic feet of records or five million pages from more than 30 different U.S. Government offices. This documentation is also searchable electronically through the NARA website on the Internet at www.archives.gov/research/jfk.

Please be advised that you may seek dispute resolution services from the CIA's FOIA Public Liaison or from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) of the National Archives and Records Administration. OGIS offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. Please note, contacting CIA's FOIA Public Liaison or OGIS does not affect your right to pursue an administrative appeal.

To contact CIA directly or to appeal the CIA's response to the Agency Release Panel:	To contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) for mediation or with questions:
